

ENTIRE COMMUNITY MOURNS DEATH OF JOSEPH COLLISON

Well Known Carroll County Farmer Passed Away Monday Morning.

Joseph Collison, one of the most influential men in this section of Iowa, died at his home west of Carroll Monday morning, April 23, at 11 o'clock after an illness of two weeks. He had been failing in health for two years, since suffering an attack of blood poisoning in his feet. When forced to take to his bed he did so reluctantly, unwilling to let his strong spirit give up to the illness which caused his death.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY, COUNTY SUPERVISOR

William Gross, one of the best known farmers of Carroll county, announces his candidacy for county supervisor, 1930 term, subject to the will of the democratic voters at the June primaries. "It was with reluctance that Mr. Gross entered the race but his friends, who are legion in both of the political parties, persuaded him that it was for the best interests of the county and Mr. Gross finally gave in to the urging of his friends.

PARALYSIS CAUSES DEATH OF PIONEER COUNTY RESIDENT

Z. T. Young Had Been Resident of Carroll County for Fifty Years.

Z. T. Young died at his home, 1123 North West street, Thursday morning, April 19, shortly before noon after critical illness of a week, suffering from the results of a paralytic stroke. Mr. Young was stricken with paralysis in November, but overcame the trouble to some extent and was able to get down town occasionally and attend to business matters that came up, although far from well. A week before his death he suffered another stroke and was taken to the St. Anthony hospital. After a few days there, he was brought home and a nurse engaged to take his care. Mr. Young did not look upon death as a thing to be feared but as something to be desired rather than long continued illness.

ACCORD JEAN THOMAS ADDITIONAL HONORS

Miss Jean Thomas, attractive sophomore student of C. H. S., who was chosen to represent Carroll at the Iowa Spring Festival, in connection with the Drake Hotel, Friday and Saturday of this week, received word this morning that she was chosen to represent this congressional district at the Relays, as the most representative high school girl in scholarship, personality, appearance, school spirit and athletic ability. The C. H. S. and the people of Carroll rejoice at the honor bestowed on this popular girl.

PROMINENT FARMER DIED YESTERDAY

J. T. Rogers, prominent farmer of the Beulah community, died at his residence at Beulah, Monday, April 23, at 4 o'clock. He was one of the pioneer settlers in that section of the county. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock and at 3 o'clock in the Methodist church of this city. Rev. Arthur M. Eastman officiating.

EUGENE COLLISON WINS FIFTH PLACE IN STATE CONTEST

Local Boy Makes Good Showing in State Spelling Contest Friday Evening.

Carroll county has a right to be proud of Eugene Collison, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Collison, who won fifth place in the state spelling contest at Des Moines Friday evening, April 20. The word which sent this youngster to defeat, after he had held his ground for over half an hour, was "egregious". While Eugene did not win first place he did remarkably well and captured the $10 prize money of the fifth place.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR MODERN GARAGE ON CARROLL STREET

J. J. Maher Will Erect Building Next to Great Western Freight Station.

Erection of a large garage on Carroll street, directly north of the Great Western freight station, was started Monday morning. J. J. Maher informs a representative of The Times that he plans on building a garage having a floor space 60 feet by 150 feet, and when completed will be one of the most complete buildings of its nature in this part of the state. Purchase of the ground north of the Great Western station from the railroad company was consummated recently and laborers are now at work on the structure.

BOYS' WEEK STARTS SATURDAY MORNING

Everything is in readiness for the local observance of boys' week which starts Saturday morning. Committees, appointed from the Lions, Rotary and Commercial clubs, have been appointing a great deal of time in an effort to make this year's week a success. All of the boys of Carroll are urged to meet at the Iowa Public Service company building on the corner of Sixth and Main streets Saturday morning at 9 o'clock sharp. The boys will be divided into four groups and conducted to a number of Carroll's industries where they will be given a talk by a man in charge and then shown through the plant.

PETIT JURY REPORTS FOR DUTY MONDAY, TO WEIGH EVIDENCE

District Court Now in Session at Carroll County Court House.

Equity cases have, in the main, occupied the attention of the court now in session at Carroll County Court House. The trial of the case of Emma Langbein, et al. vs. Herman Rowden, et al. is scheduled for this afternoon. Presiding Judge R. L. McCord has heard a number of cases and rendered his decision. In the partition action of Emma Langbein, et al. vs. Herman Rowden, et al. the suit was originally filed in the Iowa Supreme Court. A decree quieting title was issued in the case of John Zittlerger vs. Maude Black, et al. No court ruling was given in the replevin action of Northern Finance Co. vs. Joseph P. Mohrath. Case argued and submitted.

DEMOCRATS OF IOWA CHOOSE AL SMITH AT STATE MEETING

Will Back Choice for Presidential Nomination With Unit Vote.

Twenty-six votes for Alfred E. Smith have been cast at the annual meeting of the Iowa democratic party at the Iowa Hotel at Des Moines, Monday, April 23, 1928. The convention has been in the hands of Smith ever since the county caucus held April 7. In the district caucuses held Friday morning it was adopted unanimously for Alfred E. Smith. Carroll county was accorded the honor of having one representative at the national convention. Douglas Rogers of Manning being selected as one of the two delegates from Carroll.

MRS. L. MC ALLISTER DIED LAST FRIDAY AT SEATTLE, WASH.

Former Carroll Girl Passed Away Suddenly Following a Major Operation.

Carroll relatives and friends of the late McAllister family of Seattle, Wash., were shocked and grieved, when a message was received that Mrs. L. McAllister had died Friday morning, April 20. The cause of her death was embolism, which followed an operation of a serious nature. She was getting along nicely when a blood clot formed in her leg which caused her death.

Sketch of Life

Joseph Collison was born near Leola, England, April 25, 1846, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Collison. At the age of 4 years his parents came to America, settling near Chicago, where he lived until he was 16 years of age. They then moved to Ottawa, Ill., and later to a small farm southeast of Streator, Ill. He was married in 1874 to Miss Anna Wolfe and the following year, on March 17, 1875, arrived in Carroll with his wife and infant son, William. Mr. and Mrs. Collison reared a family of seven sons and two daughters, William A., John I., Joseph B., Dan A., Fred P., Mary E., Maurice L. and Frank T. One son, Arthur, was killed in a runaway accident, November 1, 1903. In addition...

LEGION POSTS OF COUNTY TO MONUMENT MEMORY MERLE HAY

Services to Be Held Memorial Sunday, May 27th, at the Glidden Cemetery.

Memorial services will be held Sunday, May 27, at the grave of Merle Hay in the Glidden cemetery by the American Legion posts of Carroll county. A meeting of the Legion posts of Carroll county was held Thursday evening at Manning at which time a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the memorial services. The following committee was appointed: M. G. Glidden, T. R. Rickle, Breda; Hanson, Manning; Morganthaler, Templeton; New, Lincoln; Conroy and Hattigan, of Carroll.

FAIR PREMIUMS PAID IN FULL

Checks in full are mailed out today from the office of County Agent Axtell to the exhibitors who won premiums at the Carroll county fair last week.

PILLS TO ROCHESTER

Supervisors Inspect Roads

The board of supervisors and County Engineer, E. A. Mather, met in field to inspect the county roads Tuesday morning. Their efforts brought the desired results and today checks for $3,920.51 have been mailed out in full.

FAIR PREMIUMS PAID IN FULL

Checks in full are mailed out today from the office of County Agent Axtell to the exhibitors who won premiums at the Carroll county fair last week.

FAIR PREMIUMS PAID IN FULL

Due to a lack of funds the Fair association was unable to meet all its obligations incurred at last year's exposition, and exhibitors who won prizes in the livestock, agriculture and flower shows at the fair were not paid. The Carroll County Farm Bureau interested itself in the matter, getting in touch with state authorities relative to receiving state aid to pay off the premium winners.

FISHING LICENSES SELLING

County Recorder Frances T. Maher has issued 308 fishing licenses since Monday, April 23, at the St. Anthony hospital. The little one lived but a short while.

TWO LOCAL RECORDS LOWERED SATURDAY

Twenty High Schools Contest for Honors at Third Annual Carroll Relays.

Two local records were lowered at the Carroll relays held last Saturday at Graham field. C. Prang of Pomeroy set a new shot put record in the male division, throwing 55 feet, 3 inches, and the Rockwell City relay team set a new meet record in the 2-mile relay, finishing in 22 minutes, 5 seconds. Had not the day been so cold no doubt other records would have gone by.

PETIT JURY REPORTS FOR DUTY MONDAY, TO WEIGH EVIDENCE

District Court Now in Session at Carroll County Court House.

Equity cases have, in the main, occupied the attention of the court now in session at Carroll County Court House. The trial of the case of Emma Langbein, et al. vs. Herman Rowden, et al. is scheduled for this afternoon. Presiding Judge R. L. McCord has heard a number of cases and rendered his decision. In the partition action of Emma Langbein, et al. vs. Herman Rowden, et al. the suit was originally filed in the Iowa Supreme Court. A decree quieting title was issued in the case of John Zittlerger vs. Maude Black, et al. No court ruling was given in the replevin action of Northern Finance Co. vs. Joseph P. Mohrath. Case argued and submitted.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

GRACE MCNAUGHT, EXECUTOR OF ESTATE OF J. J. MCGINNIS, WAS APPOINTED BY THE COURT.

(Continued on Page Five)

