FIFTT-TWO. BEALEGLIONS ON V CANIC Bright is the morning but I am blue. Arhet cen a cleature my or do That's joyful, at grim fifty-two? I'm cursed with corns, despite a shoe Rhoumatic arrows pieree me through, My back's a butt, at fifty-two. Where once my unthinned go grew. What disunal gaps at fifty-two? stern warnings—uh, how oft!—rene My dread of gout at fifty-two,

The fierce but false prophet of Soudan and his wild-eyed followers are meeting the fate of faunties on the plains of Khar-Loun, where they have been true repulsed by the natives, who fight with the desperation of wild beans at huy in defente of their homes and household treasures. These defeats will probably lead to the overthrow of the false prophet, whose cause is hepeless from the time ut is about that he and his host are and invulnerable. Should the prophet overcome the obserded this deleast acts up in his pathway of conquect on the Upper way of conquect on the Upper the contract of the contract Though all the muses I should sue, They'd stint their fire to fifty-two. Beauty and grace may fill my view: They tempt in vain: I'm fifty-two. Nature: Alack! 'tis-"mountain dey' One prizes most at filty-twe! Ideals!--pshaw! I marvel who Dotes on the moon at fifty-two! Taste! Art! One tries with racier Pales de foie at fifty-two. Or over a piquant Irish stew (Just dashed with wine), at fifty-two Pass on, O world: your false ado Mores not the phlegm of fifty-two. Your sweets, soon change to bitter rue. Deceives no more at fifty-two. Come, friend, a modest game of 'loo:" Mild stakes, mild port, at fifty-two.
