

AMBUSH NEAR LISTOWEL

Three Men Killed.

Dublin, Friday.—An official report states that three police tenders were ambushed by about 100 armed men at Kilmorna, Listowel district, Co. Kerry, yesterday. Two of the police were slightly wounded. The police returned the fire, and the dead bodies of three unknown men were later found at the scene of the ambush, and it is believed that the assailants suffered heavy casualties. The Crown forces also captured a number of shot guns, revolvers and ammunition.
