

NORTH KERRY AMBUSH

It has transpired that the names of the three victims of the recent North Kerry ambush at Kilmeany, some five miles from Listowel, are—Patrick Dalton, Athea; Jeremiah Lyons, Duagh, and Patrick Walsh, Coolard. Athea, which is reckoned seven miles from Listowel, is in the Co. Limerick, but in the border line of the two counties, while Duagh and Coolard are some three miles distant from the capital of North Kerry. The bodies of the deceased young men were brought into Listowel Police Barrack after the terrible occurrence, and thence conveyed to Tralee in motor lorries pending, it is surmised, an investigation.
