It's natural for a man to think he can buy a better Shoe for $4 than for $8$. But every rule has its exception. And our $3$ shoes are the exception to the $4$ rule. Our $3$ grade costs us every penny as much as anybody else pays for their $4$ line. Results are what you want to

Results are what you want to judge by-not prices-and we guarantee our $3 Shoes will give you the usual $4 worth of satisfaction. If they don't you get your $3 back.

There's an army of men in Washington who keep on wearing our $3 shoes year after year. Isn't it fairer for us to mark 'em $3-than to mark 'em $4 and sell 'em for $3? Some folks call that bargaining.
