ON SECOURS NOVITIATE, CORK.

and Drawing of Prizes

N AID OF NEW WING.

OLDERS OF TICKETS RE PARTICULARLY REQUESTED RETURN BLOCKS IMMED-TELY, WITH REMITTANCES, TO

REV. MOTHER, ENSURE PARTICIPATION IN DRAWING.

NOW OPEN.

ad Teacher-Ciblin III Scanaill and Assistanta.

LL Particulars in reference to Currioulum, Accommodation, Personal Care Comfort of Children, etc., on application te for Prospectus.

INISTRY OF FOOD CONTINUANCE) ACT, 1920.

PARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION FOR IRELAND. (FOOD CONTROL SECTION).

E POTATOES (EXPORT FROM RELAND) ORDER, 1919, No 1572, (AS AMENDED), REVOCATION OF GENERAL LICENCES.

on the 18th October, 1920, the General nce dated 14th August, 1920, suspendthe operation of the above Order. (Signed)

HUGH T. BARRIE, 1 October, 1920.

INISTRY OF FOOD CONTINUANCE) ACT, 1920.

PPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION FOR IRELAND.

tatoes (Export from Ireland)

Order, 1919.

TICE is hereby given that in accordance with the Direction printed e the Potatoes (Export from Ireland) 1919, again becomes operative on safter the 18th October, 1920, and conmently, on and after that date the export polatoes from Ireland will only be perd under licence from the Department Agriculture and Technical Instruction; Ireland. Particulars of the conditions which licence will be issued may be ined on application to the Department agriculture and Technical Instruction for ind (Food Control Section), 60, UPPER INT STREET, DUBLIN.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION FOR IRELAND (FOOD CONTROL SECTION).

Upper Mount Street, Dublin, th October, 1920.

CORK MICIPAL SCHOOOL OF MUSIC.

mad Master---CARL G. HARDEBECK. TALF TERM BEGINS ON MONDAY 11th OCTOBER.

STAFF AND SUBJECTS.

G. HARDEBECK-Irish National

Morte (Assistanta).

Pires. . M. LYONS, H. A. McCARTHY-Elecution

WEDNESDAY NIGHT NEXT, at 8 p.m., sharp.

ETT-SINGING-FRIDAYS, 8 p.m.

particulars from Lady Superinten-Miss Barker), at the School, 13 Union F. B. GILTINAN, Secretary.

Oct., 1920. NOTICE.

IRISH FARMERS' UNION. E Pairs at Mallow and Kanturk having

INSURANCE DAMAGE BY RIOTS

MILITARY, POLICE DAMAGE, Etc. CURRENT RATES :__ THREE MONTHS 40/-%

SIX MONTHS 50/-%

TWELVE MONTHS 60/-% Private Houses 20/-% for 12 Months Private Motor Cars 20/-% for 12 Months. Business Motor Cars 40/-% for 12 Months

COYLE AND CO., (BROKERS), LTD., 87, SOUTH MALL.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

OUR PREMISES

MONDAY MORNING 11th INST.

JOHN PERRY & SONS LIMITED,

(REV.) J. O'LEARY, P.P. and (REV.) D. O'DONOGHUE, C.C. 4566 89 & 90, PATRICK ST.

INCOME TAX.

J. J. FOX, (Resigned).

Office-15 Cook Street, Cork (ground floor)

OIL COATS. WATERPROOF COATS,

Horse and Cart Covers, IRISH MANUFACTURE.

E Food Controller hereby revokes as W. J. O'Sullivan & Son. 11 & 81, GRAND PARADE, CORK.

(For Food Controller). POTATO DIGGERS

D.CYLES MARTINS.

STRONGEST, LIGHTEST DRAFT. CLEANEST DIGGERS MADE.

> LOWEST PRICES. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

LUCEY & O'CONNELL,

CORK.

BACON! BACON! BACON!

FINE SELECTION. WELL SMOKED You may travel where you like for BACON, but eventually you will find your way back to T. J. MURPHY'S

PROVISION STORES. (OPPOSITE THE C.P.O.)

The Cork Examiner.

CORK.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1920.

WEATHER FORECAST,

good apart from morning mist or fog Further outlook.-Mainly fair to fine for two days, over East and South of Eng.

SEEKING A FORMULA.

Musical Grish Modes). Counterpoint, Musical Form.

Form.

CHARDE BORNETH IN Rational Modes, including Theory and Harmony Military and bitterness that Grish Modes. Counterpoint, Musical Form.

CHARDE BORNETH IN Rational United to measure the first of the minors, that they are forced to be indoors at the fitzgerald, Peter Crawley, John Crawley, Information on the use of explosives, or the employment of rifle and machine-gun fire. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. This latest episode has been unforthat that British statesmen usually regarded that they should out till 9 counterform. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. This latest episode has been unforthat that British statesmen usually regarded that they should out till 9 counterform. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. Smiliton there the minors, that they should out till 9 counterform. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. Smiliton the minors, that they should out till 9 counterform. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. Smiliton there is the minors, that they are forced to be indoors at to the runal power of the men or any of them were allowed out till 9 counterform. The courageous advice addressed by Mr. This latest episode has been unforthed to measure the fitzgerald, Peter Crawley, John D'DONOGHUE, L.R.A.M.-Pisnoforte, events, have reached the conclusion that MAUD BURROWES, MISS Home Rule is inevitable. Lord Grey DEATH OF REV. J. CRANE, O.S.A. believes that within certain limits, believes that within certain limits, G. STOCKLEY—Voice Production and honestly stated, frishmen from Choral Class.

The Rev. John Cranc, Sub-Prior O.S.A. New Ross, whose death has occurred, be solely on his own personal responsibility, and that probably a majority of the Executive and the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in progress, soldiers fully armed dwith the condition of the three men rather of the street condition of the three men rather of the street condition of the three men rather of the street on the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the fear of septicacmia setting in makes; they were bent on so desperate an enter-was in the condition of the trevillation.

The Correlation deligate are was one of the street on the fear of septicacmia setting in would place the responsibility for the Provincial of the Irish Province, and afterwould place the responsibility for the Provincial of the Irish Province, and aftertrials of the light of the severe rack street some minutes hafore 9 o'clock, ric is sunering from wounds sustained streets. There was a girl in the house with trials of the industrial world during the and saw a lorry approaching. "Just at the wards Bishop of Sandhurst. He had uncless trials of the industrial world during the and saw a lorry approaching. "Just at the and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said, and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the Augustian during the said,
and grand-uncles members of the said,
and grand-un men themselves, and in that way he betinion Order. Five of his uncles were in the coalfields will be a blessing undislieves that the onus of responsibility ber of the Augustinian Order. At the inevitable that within the ranks of Labour ploded, but I cannot say if that wounded IORAL CLASS begins rehearsals on would succeed in eliminating the differ. Solemn Office of the Dead in the August the battle between the moderate men and anyone. The second exploded in the would succeed in eliminating the differ. Solemn Once of the Dead in Solemn which concession and compromise would was a large attendance of clergy and laity. Nerves in the City. be possible.

Meanwhile Mr. Lloyd George predict—

Meanwhile Mr. Lloyd George predict—
and cheaper than new. In our warerooms attack of nerves. Scarcely a day passes there then took up positions on the street."

They were immediately treated by the you will find the largest selection in Munster without reports gaining currency that this

A number of houses in the neighbourresident surgeon and staff, who did every-Rule will be carried by the Coalition. of Old Mahogany Sideboards, Dining Tables or that concern is in a critical position, but hood of the scene of the ambush had their thing in their power to allay their suffer-Does he mean by that that his followers and Chairs, Wardrobes, Linen Presses, Cheet as usual rumour does not fail to exaggerate. windows perforated either with bullets or ings, and took every precaution possible brill correction the Consequence of Bill which Drawers, Book-cases, etc. Intending pur So far City men have been spared the pain shrappel. Nine distinct holes were made to prevent complications. will carry the Government's Bill, which chasers should buy "now." Customers not of hearing of a financial entastrophe, but in the window of Mr. Mathew Thomas' Jerh. Linehan whose address is given as it's progress blocked by a waggon across the Irish nation has already rejected. ready to take delivery our have their purthere is no doubt that unpleasant events are pharmacy, one of which entered just over Wycherley's Tee, was treated at the Mercy the road. As it came to a standstill four Capt. Harrison, Secretary of the Irish chases stored free of charge until required expected during this and next month, and the lower have beside which the assistants at the Hospital. He was not detained. His bombs were hurled at the lorry, two of Peace Conference, has been at pains to George's Street, Cork. make it clear that the moderate Irishbeen prohibited, the members of the men who comprised the Peace Conferdaugh Branch Irish Farmers' Union cugh Branch Irish Farmers' Union lecided on holding a Fair at Bally. ence, are as hitterly opposed to that special arrangements for their supplies taining financial assistance from the banks of terror yesterday. When the military of Best House and Best Steam Coals, are is also an important factor, whilst the rather is also an important factor.

must be introduced and provision made, for ascertaining whether Ireland accepts or rejects the offer." If Mr. George conceives that the Irish people will submit to having a sham measure of freedom imposed on them by the Conlition, Among the Welsh Hills. and one which is so devised as to pre-made aware of his error.

plair of the muman Re-Opened for Business ready to suggest that Irishmen should we are bidden to look in have no difficulty in reaching unanimity his Irish policy in detail. No doubt, Mr. George, who carries his Lord Grey. House of Commons majority in his sure of Irish Self-Government, whether down as a condition precedent that the army freedom based on justice ought to be. ancy between the two Liberal statemen's proposals than appears. RECOVERED AND ADJUSTED Mr. George says he cannot 'cut the proposate than appearance of a Century's practical painter,' and that the Dominion policy Late Inland Revenue (Taxes) Department) Government in a terrible position. Jus- "Nation," has been less acute than be OIL RUGS, be launched with the blessing of the ment. The scheme, it will be seen, bears every class in the country, including Gazetto" printed, and indeed there is an soldiers proceeding along Barrack street was the Northern loyalists, whose minds are hunger-strikers in Cork Gael, or of the Propaganda Films. Lord Mayor of Cork in Brixton Prison.

THE LORD MAYOR. HEALTH SHOWS DISTINCT DETERIORATION

NO APPRECIABLE CHANGE.

The Deputy Lord Mayor received the fol-"Brixton, 11.55,-No appreciable change.-Father Dominic.

was slightly weaker.

THE CORK PRISONERS.

Yesterday morning it was learned that the condition of the hunger-strikers in Cork Gaol showed no material change. There was no material change in the con- perhaps that the film will be sent to Ireland,

CORK HUNGER-STRIKERS

Message To Lord Mayor.

in a state of extreme exhaustion, are still alive. In reply to the message of greeting following message was telegraphed to Brix-

Light to moderate breezes, mainly from To the Lord Mayor of Cork, Brixton South or South-west. Fair to fine. Visibility Gaol.—Your comrades in Cork greet you It is a striking commentary on the your prayer committing our people and unrest, uncertainty and bitterness that our cause to the mercy of Cod."—Michael FURNITURE.

b on Wednesday, October 27th for color Cattle, Sheep, Pigs, etc., and sary steps will be taken to make it a declares, impossible, and "if a settle-stations."

The Government's Partition Bill is, ne now in a position to supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather is also an important factor, whilst the rather depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather is also an important factor, whilst the rather and polico withdrew from the supply very best depressing statements of important business that though all stations. Housekeepers Orders to City matters.

A party of military, in charge of an office that though all three patients injured in the ambush are in a serious condition, they are getting on Knecklong. Nothing of a seditious natures will supply the patients injured in a serious condition, they are getting on Knecklong. Nothing of a seditious nature will supply the patients injured in a serious condition, they are getting on Knecklong. Nothing of a seditious nature will supply the patients injured in a serious condition, they are getting on Knecklong. Nothing of a seditious nature will supply the patients injured in a serious condition, they are getting on Knecklong. Nothing of a seditious nature.

Based Polico withdrew from the community of Best House and Best Steam Coals, are is also an important factor, whilst the rather and guesting and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of important factor, whilst the rather and supply very best depressing statements of interest and supply very best depressing statements of interest and supply very best depressing stat

LONDON LETTER.

THROUGH OUR PRIVATE WIRE 101 Fleet Street, Friday Night.

Somebody once remarked about Mr vent the country from having full con-trol of its own finance, he will soon to Hills he always showed himself more of the old Radical of his younger days than he did It is an illuminating commentary on dudno scarcely carried out the idea. It was British mentality towards Irish Self- as artful as usual The point of the proceed-Government that while Viscount Grey, ings was that the gathering be was address-Lord Morley, Lord Cecil, Mr. Asquith ing was one of his Welsh political followers, and Mr. Lloyd George, all agree that titular Leader of Welsh Liberalism. They Home Rule is not only desirable, but did so of course, though a plucky protest that its coming cannot be long delayed, was made by Mr. Llewellyn Williams. a no two of these statesmen agree precises but better known in later days in the House of Commons. Mr. George could not resist exact form. Dominion Home Rule with one or two digs at Mr. Asquith, but his so many reservations and variations that speech was largely colourless, an affected it ceases to be Dominion Home Rule at scribed in judiciously vague terms—being its all, may roughly be said to represent chief feature. Ireland he left almost alone, the composite idea. Viscount Grey would except to predict at the close of his speech control the Irish ports, and Mr. George Conlition. If his refere was to the Partiwould control the Irish purse, and so on. tion Bill, as presumably it was, the state-And these British political lenders who ment was simply a gross perversion of the cannot agree amongst themselves are all truth. It is to Mr. George's later speeches ready to suggest that Irishmen should we are bidden to look for an exposition of pocket, is safe in predicting that the Lord Grey of Falleden returns to the Irish question in the "Westminster Gazette" to-Coalition will carry Home Rule. The day with a view of clearing up the points Coalition is pledged to support him, and of apparent difference between his previous a measure which would impose an unjust letter and the letter of Mr. Asquith in the financial levy on Ireland might prove in is chiefly interesting as showing he is very incentive to the British Dichards to much in carnest. His principal point conswallow their prejudices at a price. How- cerns Mr. Asquith's willingness to let Ireever, Ireland will not accept any mea- land have her own navy and army if she wanted them, whereas Lord Grey had laid it it be imposed or not, that does not and navy and foreign policy of these islands accord with the Irish idea of what full must be one. Probably there is less discrepas now put forward would place the Mr. Massingham, who is the Editor of the tice evidently does not obtrude itself paper to publish to-day a project for an into his calculations, which manifestly Irish settlement which circles round the are based on expediency. A policy of Prince of Wales, who, it is suggested, might force and repression in Ireland has not be made by Act of Parliament a Prince Regent pending the decision of a Constiproved itself to be a political success, tuent Assembly. The only comment that and a policy of financial grab, even if it seems called for is an expression of wonder. Prime Minister, will be repudiated by some resemblance to the idea set out in the rack street and the streets adjoining.

Prime Minister, will be repudiated by hoax which yesterday's "Westminster At 8.40 yesterday morning a lorry full of which mentions the resemblance, and adds as frugal as their prejudices are strong.

I am glad to see that the Society of Film They are all extremely weak, but con- Producers in this country have expressed tinue determined to maintain their strong disinchination to exhibit propastruggle to the end.

The place of attack was carefully chosen. In this opinion, death money than that in the house. Then she was due to shock and hemorrhage following fainted, and was gagged and bound to a getting off the street when he was woun tinue determined to maintain their their strong disinchination to exhibit propadenly a volley of shots rang out.

At the corner of Cove street are ruins of immediately ran for cover, and was due to shock and hemorrhage following fainted, and was gagged and bound to a getting off the street when he was wounsion, and indeed any other would be grossly the Council or and the street when he was wounsion, and indeed any other would be grossly the Corporation, and from these ruins the ded. He saw a military lorry at the end unfair to the public. When a novelist writes bembs were thrown. It is stated that after of the street. This man received a bullet morning. particular policy, whether political, social, moral or otherwise, the fact is always well dashed down Cove street. advertised. One danger in the case of film propaganda is that they are usually put and one of the civilians was seen to fall. critical condition in the South Infirhave adopted, namely, to bar propaganda the enlookers. SLIGHTLY WEAKER.

the second to take good care that propasome time after the attackers had disapting from the top of Barrack street, a witness from start to finish, for with ganda does not try to creep in unannounced. Pring was continued by the mintary for the second to take good care that propasome time after the attackers had disapting from the top of Barrack street, a witness from start to finish, for with where a military lorry was stationed. By the way, a journalist friend of mine, to the Infirmaties:—Denis Buckley, 107 panie-stricken for cover and some took. it was stated that the Lord Mayor of Cork | who was one of a party which to-day saw a Horgan's Buildings; Thomas Madden, 16 gusted with much of it. There is a scene and in which a convent is sneked by a lat of Jorh. Einchan at the Mercy hospital, Mr. objectionable, but there are other features ed, and was subsequently discharged. also open to severe criticism. It is not likely ought not to be encouraged.

trish Railways. I mentioned the other day that representant street. Nobody was allowed to pass, tatives of the Irish Railways had been here and those who came into the street were conferring with the Government, and that the Cabinet meeting held this day week considered the position. To-day's "Pall Mall Scarched that anything unusual was lowed to happen was when a woman from South Infirmary sustained a bomb wound for the control of the c will of God, and fortified by your example by the Government's comma is caused and our confidence in one another, we by the fact that such a decision on their coming winter, a decision against striking point where Cove street intersects," he said, a bomb cut through the calves of both board, and she was crying because the other house is opposite the Abbeyfeale barracks, in the coalfields will be a blessing undis- "I saw two or three bombs thrown at the legs. His condition is serious.

George Scott and Co., Ltd., having made and high-prices stocks. The difficulty of obspecial arrangements for their supplies taining financial assistance from the banks of terror yesterday. When the military

London Stock Markets, after a listless day, closed better volver fire, terrified the residents of Bar- the city could not be obtained. ambushed at the corner of Covo street by one castally.

Rule will be carried by the Coalition."

Wilson, M.P., describes it as quite unofficial.

and gunshots. .

exchange, 3.51.

DEA D-MANY

About a quarter to nine yesterday morning, in Barrack street, Cork, bombs were thrown at a military lorry. One soldier was killed and three wounded. The troops in the larry returned the fire. Three men and a girl received bomb or bullet wounds. One of the victims others. A military inquiry was opened yesterday afternoon. Some occupants of the lorry gave evidence. The medical evidence showed that deceased, Private Squibbs, had received many wounds from bombs

Mr. Lloyd George opened his Welsh tour yesterday at Llandudno.

Generally his speech was one of glorification for the Coalition. Regarding Ireland he said: "I am going to predict, I am going to do something more daring, I am going to predict about Ireland, that Home

The shipping strike in Cork and Dublin continues. Mr. Havelock

An official statement shows that Sergeant Doherty and Constable

Stanley, shot at Feakle, East Clare, are dead. Constable Murphy was

The Lord Mayor of Cork was slightly weaker last night.

The Coalition candidate won liferd by a big majority.

Graphic stories of the attack rie told by the injured civilians and was not detained in hospital but the other cases are serious.

dashed down Cove street.

The military at once returned the fire, Mr. Denis Buckley, who lies in a private view of a film, "The Sack of Rome." Evergreen "street; Kate Fitzgerald, 52 came back very much disedified and dis Prosperity Square, at the South Infirmary, the South Infirmary, was seen to have in the lorry with portion of his band ruffianly soldiers, which was particularly Linchan, however, was not seriously wound-Reinforcements at once arrived from Elizabeth Fort, where auxiliary police are dition of the prisoners at 3 o'clock this but if it should be it is clearly one that stationed, and three military lorries, accompanied by an armoured car, were also on house from which he was later removed had lain there for some time.

changed. All the eleven prisoners, though Gazette," which may be considered as have the top of Barrack street was coming toing special means of knowledge on matters wards the South Gate bridge on her way in the legfrom the Lord Mayor (Ald. MacSwiney), the "no decision has yet been arrived at." It family. A voice from the ruins at Cove adds that the Companies are prepared to street told her to clear out as quickly as "To the Lord Mayor of Cork, Brixton do all that is required of them if the Go-people on their way to work, as was also vernment can guarantee the labour neces- the roise of the approaching lorry. Some of Soldier Dead-Arm Blown Off. on this your 57th day. Realising that yours sary. This, it is suggested, the Government those who, a minute before, were hestening is the harder fight, made in the midst of the can only do at present by using the military became suspicious and turned back. They had enemy, we pay homege to your inflexible to run the trains and work the traffic. Pre- only just done so when the bomb was fired, will. Sustained in our struggle by the sumuably the Government's comma is caused and there was a race up Barrack street by our reporters wrote later:—

will of God, and fortified by your example by the fact that such a decision on their those who a minute before were hastening. The affray in Barrack Street, subsequent boarded up. "I saw a number of men, should have a possible to run the trains and work the traffic. Pre- only just done so when the bomb was fired. CIVILIANS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED. the ruins in Barrack St. at 8.45 yesterday and there was a race up Barrack street by the fact that such a decision on their those who a minute before were hastening. The affray in Barrack Street, subsequent boarded up. "I saw a number of men, should be a proposed to the sumulation of the sum of the and our confidence in one another, we await with calmness the issue—prepared for least if need be in the cause of the Republic. We gladly join with you in some severe committing our people and your prayer committing our people and your prayer committing our people and that there were severe shocks the time was that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that they were waiting for 9 that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that there was that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that there was that they were waiting for 9 that Curfew would be enforced one hour that they were waiting for 9 that t basis for peace, strengthens the official belief that the ballot may show at any rate, a small majority against the extremists.
Though the miners' veteran leader makes it clear that he speaks not ex-eathedra, but solely on his own personal responsibility.

The datum line settlement as a temporary at first thought to have been from a falling to the strength of the proposed and the volleys by which it was were, it is stated, three soldiers wounded.

Asked if the men or any of them were followed removed ail doubt as to what was occurring. "It was like a clap of thunder," died shortly afterwards. He with the other were not. They stood in the open street, military and police railed the premises of soldiers wounded was taken to the Military talking together and displaying not the slighter trace of excitement. No one would slighter trace of excitement. No one would have suspected from their demeanour that the search

There is no disguising the fact that com- lerry continued on its way up the hill to hip.

WOUNDED PERSONS

INTERVIEWED. that the article was written before the a party of civilians, who first threw bombs, Four civilians wounded in the firing attackers numbered about a dozen, and the South Infirmary, and legs, and a small gun shot wound on them with revolvers, and brought though an intense fire was opened on them. Interviewed by a Press representative, the middle of the left shoulder. All the downstairs. They demanded money.

it is stated that they got away with only Jeremiah Linehan said he was passing wounds, with the possible exception of the Mrs. Fox gave them a purse containing down Barrack street on his way to work The place of attack was carefully chosen. about five minutes to nine, when suda story for the purpose of pushing some the explosion the attackers appeared and wound in the right shoulder, also a opened revolver fire, after which they flesh wound at the corner of the mouth, and his left leg was grazed by another on without any such warning. An even Others came to his assistance, and getting mary, sustained a wound in the left the people of Barrack street, Evergreen A Press Association mid-day special greater danger is that in the case of some yesterday states:—

There was little change in the Lord Mayor of Cork's condition this morning as compared with yesterday.

His health, however, shows a distinct deterioration since this time last week.

The case of some on his feet again he ran along netween ms right thigh. He said he was passing living in Bardon road and the ematter down Barrack street on the way to his such, the alleged purpose is merely a pretext. Those who were in the vicinity at the work, and was just opposite Mr. Mathew parts of the case in that district, were engaged in the case of A Press Association mid-day special greater danger is that in the case of some on his feet again he ran along between his side, and a large gaping wound in the street, Cove street, and not a few of those and it was investigated by the police. roused a good deal of indignation. In that in and asked the other to "give the car a stanned for a time; and then, recovering leaving their homes and coming towards roused a good deal of indignation. In that in and asked the other to "give the car a stanned for a time; and then, recovering leaving their homes and coming towards roused a good deal of indignation. In that in and asked the other to "give the car a stanned for a time; and then, recovering leaving their homes and coming towards a good deal of indignation. In that in and asked the other to "give the car a stanned for a time; and then, recovering leaving their homes and coming towards a good deal of indignation. In that in and asked the other to "give the car a stanned for a time; and then, recovering leaving their homes and coming towards a good deal of indignation. case the attention that was drawn to the shove." This was done, and the car started somewhat, crawled across the roadway picture sufficed to make the promoters off with its two occupants. It is impossible to a publichouse on the opposite side, modify at all events its more offensive feator establish whether it was fired at, but the modify at all events its more offensive fea- to establish whether it was fired at, but the for about ten minutes until the am- by the inscription "Revenge to-night!" tures. The safest plan for the Film Proaudacity of these two men who took it away bulance came, when he was removed to which was cut with some hard sharp inbave adopted, namely, to bar propaganda the onlookers.

to establish whether it was tred at, out the for about ten minutes until the ambulance came, when he was removed to which was cut with some hard sharp inthe South Infirmary. During the ten strument into the parapet of the South minutes he spent in the public house, Gate Bridge. Firing was continued by the military for he heard continuous rapid rifle fire, com-panic-stricken for cover and some took or windows. Those who did peep out after shelter in the house where he lay. Thomas Madden, when admitted to the hospital. Mr. Madden also was path.

travelling up Barrack hill when he came ily as possible. into Barrack street, and was practically opposite him when he was knocked in the left hip and also a bullet wound

THE CASUALTIES.

LORD MAYOR UNCHANGED PRIVATE KILLED MILITARY INQUIRY.

SENSATIONAL AMBUSH IN CORK. ATTACK DESCRIBED, At the Victoria Barracks, Cork, Jast ovenng a court of inquiry in lieu of an inquest CASUALTIES.

INTERVIEWS WITH WOUNDED OFFICIAL INQUIRY OPENED. passing about seven men came out of couple, was shot dead. Sergeant Doberty Cove street and commenced throwing who was walking at the side of Constable stones at the lorry. I fired one round, and they went away to the left—I think down Cove street. Directly afterwards and died about an hour afterwards, count four bombs were thrown at the lorry, of which one entered. I saw Private Squibbs stone down as if to pick it up both then opened fire on the attackers. The Another bomb was found underneath the last pair of constables took shelter also and lorry. I was sitting in front with the opened fire. These four men got back to TWO POLICEMEN DEAD IN CLARE. PREMIER SPEAKS IN WALES ten yards beyond Cove street. In the The bodies of Sergeant Doherty and ruins of an old building at the corner I saw Constable Stanley were recovered later in COALITION AND HOME RULE. twenty or thirty civilians, about fact of the day. Their rifles and accourrements whom crossed the middle of the road behind been taken away.

hind us, and opened fire on us with re- Our Ennis correspondent wired:—Details volvets. I con't know how many rounds of the tragedy show that there was no they fired. The other civilians withdrew attack on the barracks, as first reported. towards the quay, some of them taking but that a party of police were ambushed up positions in doorways. This operation when going to the local post office. At took nearly a quarter of an hour. The 11.30 o'clock, the police, five in number. police arrived on the scene about a quar-ter of an hour after the attack commenced in the rere. When passing the cometery I saw some civilians come up Sullivan's on the way to the office, which is about Quay, and look towards the lorry just be-fore the police arrived. This perty of civillary of shots rang out from behind the lians fired two revolver rounds. I heard roadside wall, and Const. Stanley fell dead, three beinds explode in the attack on the his tack being terribly injured. larry. One went off just as I saw Private | Sergt, Doherty received such injuries that Souibbs bond down. I personally fired he died in a short time, and Const. Mur-fifteen rounds, and the escort also returned phy received a flesh wound in the leg.

the lorry. I found he was hadly wounded district, Co. Leitrim, and a unmarried, in the left hand, and I assisted in carrying him to the Fort. Three other members of the escort were hit during the attack.
A private, who was in the lorry with Private Squibbs, said directly they got clear of the horse and cart, which was driven across the road, three or four hombs were thrown at the forry. One of these bombs burst in the forry and hit I rivate Squibbs, who was one of the escort. There were thirty or forty in the attacking party, and while some of them. while some of them were throwing bombs the others were firing at the military. Wit-

Private Squibbs lying in the lorry. One hand was blown off. He was then alive. Yesterday morning explosions, rifle and re ! country if accommodation in other parts of A corporal gave evidence of identification ed in Bray to day, that the hair of a mar-A military doctor stated that about to o'clock the body was brought to the Barracks. Private Squibbs had then been dead a party of civillans, who has three points, Four civillans wounded in the nring about half-an-hour. Witness examined the when two armed and marked men gained THE HUNGER-STRIKERS.

THE HUNGER-STRIKERS.

Scheme of the "Irish Vigilance Association" had been published. The Editor refers to this mythical body as one of whose previous of the lorry, but the second was more care. The note of the relative to the condition of the untried relative to the relative to the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the left the condition of the left the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the left the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the untried relative to the condition of the untried to the condition of t

SEEKING SAFETY.

All through yesterday and last evening the men firing at it. another abode for the night.

It was not easy to get anyone who was the explosion were borrified to see a soldier into Barrack street, when he was woun- Noonan's publishouse there was a large body had got home, and between this hour ded. He was taken to a neighbouring pool of blood as if one of the wounded and ten o'clock there were fewer people the scene. The armoured car took up a to the South Intirmary in the Corpora-nosition near the South Gate bridge, and tion ambulance. A military lorry was soldiers to the military hospital as spend-

Mr Robert Valsh, 5a Friar's Walk, carpenter, employed by the Corporation, told vicinity of Washington street, but the ob-"Examiner" reporter yesterday that ject of them could not be accertained. Mr Twomey, superintendent of buildings The affray in Barrack Street, subsequent boarded up. "I saw a number of men, about children had just left for school.

EYE-WITNESS'S STORY.

Miss Katie Fitzgerald, 52; Prosperity taken up positions along the street it was ramed Pan Buckley was also arrested some two soldiers fall. The soldiers then return-set the fire, and I observed a civilian fall; O'Gorman's Factory, Pope's Quay, also but he got up again and ran away. The but he got up again and ran away. The received wounds in the leg and right circumstanced, and he very obligingly arrested on reaching his office at Barrack brought the bievele down.

OFFICIAL REPORT. The following was issued last evening:-

At 9 a.m. to-day a military motor lorry shin bone. He was also suffering from several houses in the street, and was re-chemical engine. plied to by the uninjured soldiers. During the meleo three civilians were wounded.

different in scope, purport and effect. Phone 795.

15 South Mall, Cork. 7/ Night Main Street, and 40, Prince's and already preparations were in progress It understood that the wounded soldiers the house of Mr. J. Keeffe, Hospital, where prices. O'Sullivan's, New York House.

18 to be arrived at, a new but widely steamers. Office: 15 South Mall, Cork. 7/ Night Main Street, and already preparations were in progress It understood that the wounded soldiers the house of Mr. J. Keeffe, Hospital, where prices. O'Sullivan's, New York House.

19 Street. Telephone No 626.

18 Street. Telephone No 626.

19 Street. Telephone No 626. was discovered. The same party also raided Aromatic. Broad-Cut, or Cork. Moderate

FEAKLE SHOOTINGS. CONSTABLE & SERGEANT DEAD.

The Special Correspondent of the Press Association in Dublin wired yesterday:-Dublin Castle reports this evening that was held for the purpose of investigating further official details received with reference the circumstances of the death of Private to the attack on the police in Feakle, Co. John Gordon Squibbs, who lost his life in Clare, state that a sergeant and five conan attack on a military lorry on Friday stables left the local R.I.C. barracks at The first witness called was a lance- go to the post office. They went in half-past eleven on Thursday morning to The first witness called was a lance go to the post office. They went in corporal who was in charge of the lorry couples at intervals of twenty yards. "As He stated—Ahout 8.50 this morning I left they got to the post office," the report the barracks to proceed to Fort Elizabeth states, "Gre was opened on them from When I got to Barrack Street, on the way the upper windows of the post office and there, a horse and cart got in our way, and the driver had to slow down. Even and from the other side of the road." tually the driver of the lorry pulled along They were thus in a triangle of fire, at one side of it. Just as the lorry was Constable Stanley, who was one of the first passing about seven men came out of couple was shot dead. Serves of Deberty.

lorry. I was sitting in front with the opened fire. These four mon got back to driver at the time this occurred and stop the barracks, fire being continued on them ped the larry and got out. We were then the whole way.

the fire. I had six men with me, but four | Coust. Stanley is a native of Cork and of them were only firing. After the firing married, with four children, died down I heard that Squibbs was in Sergt. Doherty belonged to the Mehili

> CO. DUBLIN OUTRAGES MARRIED WOMAN ILLTREATED.

Martyred Prelate's Picture Damaged.

ness thought they were nearly all armed with revolvers. After the attack he saw Our Dublin Correspondent wired last night:-An extraordinary story was reportthe decrased, whose name was John ried woman, resident in the township, was Gordon Squibbs, aged 17 years 8 months, cut, her wedding ring taken, £15 in notes unmarried, and a native of the Isle of stolen, and bullet holes put through a picture of Oliver Plankett, the martyred Arch-

The sensational affair was stated to have occurred about two o'clock this morning. and legs, and a small gun shot wound on them with revolvers, and brought them one in the left shoulder, could have been 4d., but they replied that she had more The court adjourned at 5.30, to 10.30 this two rings taken off her finger. Our of the men kept the husband covered with a total ver whilst the other went apstairs and goods a search, and secured £13 in notes. Then pictures were taken off the walls, and that of Oliver Plankett was punctured by one of

The affair has caused a great seriation

CURFEW IN CORK

OFFICIAL REPORT. Curfew, Night of Oct. 7th-5th. subsequently released and sent home. 2.—The City was quiet, and no shots were fired. F. R. EASTWOOD, Major, Brigade Major, 17th Infantry Brigade.

LAST NIGHT

In view of recent happenings it was not surprising to find that even at an early received bomb wounds about the legs, blown away and blood flowing profusely from hour last night there were comperatively Some splinters of a bomb which still what remained. He was stretched in the few people on the streets, and when the remained in his calf were removed at lorry, and his hand was found on the foot. Volunteers began to get the people home shortly after nine o'clock, it was not long proceeding to work at the time, and Another soldier was seen limping along before they were completely cleared. In had only turned from Evergreen street the street, and beside the corner of Mrs deed before 3.45 p.m. practically every in Patrick street than has often been the case up to 10.15 p.in. since the introduction of the Curfew Regulations. The military were early on the streets, too, and though A piece of human flesh was found stick- it may be assumed that the Curfew Regul lations were carried out with the customers rigone, there were few arrests. Many people anticipated that some trouble might prise, but there is some reason to assume that the military authorities took steps to prevent this, and up to the time of going to press, at all events, those steps appeared to have been effective. About 11.30 some shots were fired in the

CURFEW IN HOSPITAL

Michael Collins, a young man, whose Denis Buckley, living at 107 Horgan's When the shooting ceased I left the house on Thursday morning, was taken through Buildings, a packer, aged 36, is similarly and went down Sober lane to Sullivan's the town in a military motor lorgy and Buildings, a packer, aged 36, is similarly and went down soper tane to Sumivan the town in a mintary mount quay. Mr Twomey's hicycle was standing released after being taken some distance in the right hip and right shoulder. as the police and military had by this time folded and roughly treated. A young man street on Thursday morning, has been de-recently been searched.

FIRE IN CORK.

About 8.30 o'clock last evening an outnoticed in a tenement house in Paul street, tained since, on what charge has not transpared. Several houses in the town have

Insure with the Hibernian Fire and