

SEPT. 18, 1941.

ETERNAL REST

Raymond B. Wolfe.

Delmar, Ia.—Funeral services were held in St. Patrick's church, Thursday for Raymond B. Wolfe, 44, who died Tuesday after a long illness. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Reverend J. J. Hopkins, pastor, assisted by the Reverend James Quinlan of Charlotte and the Rev. H. E. O'Connor of Lost Nation. Pallbearers were R. L. Guise, Peter McGinn, Dan Waters, Allen Brackett, Percy Cassin, and Charles Rasmussen. Eight members of the Maquoketa post of the American Legion attended the funeral and formed a firing squad at the grave, with Hugh Fletcher blowing taps.

Raymond Wolfe was active in community and church affairs until a month before his death. He was a member of the Delmar Consolidated school board, a trustee of St. Patrick's church, and a member of the American Legion.

Raymond Wolfe, son of the late Maurice and Sarah Wolfe, was born on October 27, 1896 near Lost Nation. He was married to Gladys McGinn on August 25, ~~1935~~ and they lived near Lost Nation before moving to their present farm south of Delmar. 1925 ←

Surviving are his wife and three daughters, Sara, Mary, Marjorie, and one son, Thomas, also four brothers, Philip, John, Melvin, and James, all of Lost Nation.

→ sp. - Margery