

L. E. Meyer Marries At Iowa City Vows

Laurence Joseph Meyer, son of Mrs. Arthur E. Meyer, 1210 Davenport St., and the late Arthur Meyer, was married this morning in St. Thomas More Church, Iowa City. The bride is the former Miss Joan Elizabeth Breckenridge, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George T. Breckenridge, Iowa City. Relatives and other guests of various faiths and denominations were in attendance for the ceremony. The bride, in a gown of white tulle, wore a large veil and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations. Her bridesmaids were Misses Joan and Marie Breckenridge. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Conway. The bride gave away her bouquet to her maid of honor, Miss Marie Breckenridge. The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The bride and groom will reside at 1210 Davenport St., Iowa City.

From the Notebook Relay From East Tells Of New-Born

Mrs. Robert Pittman tells us that she is recipient of a letter from Mrs. Rex Van Alstyne, written from Yonkers, N. Y., where she is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Elizabeth Marie, born Oct. 15.

The Van Alstyne left Davenport last spring to make their home in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. They are happily settled there now, having bought a home. Mr. Van Alstyne will join his wife in Yonkers for the month, but he will be expected to be in Ft. Lauderdale, which has already made loyal citizens of them.

Their daughter, Judy, by Dr. Marshall, Mrs. Van Alstyne, also lives in Ft. Lauderdale. Judy has been teaching school there this year.

Annual Visit

We had our annual visit from William G. Wick, 777 East Ave., last week. Mr. Wick is the son of the late Dr. Wick, who was a member of the American Football Society, which organization makes an annual gift to the Times Milk Kitchen.

After transacting our business, we discussed the recent visit that Mr. and Mrs. Wick had to Kentucky and Tennessee.

They visited Louisville, where they saw the famous horse race track and the various farms where the famous horses are raised.
