THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH SUCCESSFUL.

THE CABLE Laid.

Great Excitement and Rejoicing.

The important and gratifying intelligence of the successful laying of the Atlantic Cable was announced at the office in this city on Thursday afternoon.

It came unexpectedly, that it was some time before people could be persuaded that it was not a hoax.

It is now generally believed that the Atlantic Telegraph will be laid from Newfoundland, England, to St. John's, Newfoundland, and from there to St. Louis, Missouri, and from there to San Francisco, California.

The announcement appears to have been the signal for a general jubilee and rejoicing throughout the country.

President of the I. & N. Telegraph Company, and of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, and of the private residence of Judge Oton.

Judge Dooley was followed by William Keane, 125 Queen Street, who is also a member of the same company.

While there is such general rejoicing at the consummation of this great work, however, it is not wholly out of danger.

The safe arrival of the Niagara is announced with her end of the cable, but the Agamemnon must still have some 300 miles distant from her destination.

It is not until the 15th inst. that the Agamemnon will be able to proceed.

The Ball Toting.

Democracy Meeting in Ottawa. The Democratic Convention.
